Brent Chapman Visits Fulton® in Mosinee, WI

MOSINEE, Wis. – Brent Chapman, the 2012 Elite Series Angler of the Year, visited Fulton on Monday, June 24. Chapman spent the day with employees of Cequent Performance Products, the parent company of his Fulton sponsorship.

In addition to a visit, Chapman and 19 Cequent employees participated in a company fishing tournament. Part of the proceeds raised during the day went toward the United Way Fill-A-Backpack program. This charity provides children with needed school supplies in Marathon County, Wisconsin. A local news team was onsite to cover the event. Click here to watch the coverage.

Cequent manufactures the Fulton brand of trailer couplers, jacks and winches, and sponsors Chapman as he travels across the country promoting the sport of bass fishing. Chapman travels to events towing his Triton boat with his Toyota Tundra, which is completely wrapped in a marine design featuring Fulton F2 trailer jacks and winches.
